Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Robert N. Sack's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Sack devoted more than 33 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a Non Commissioned Officer and has devoted his career to service to his fellow soldiers and has served on State Active Duty during times of wild land fire and blizzards; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Sack continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant First Class Robert N. Sack for more than 33 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 31, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State by Deputy
